The SACS 18 hour rule

To hold the title of Instructor, the Faculty member must have completed at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline hold a minimum of a Master’s degree with a major in the teaching discipline.

Example... If you are hiring an Instructor in Biology, the person should have a Master’s degree in Biology or the person can have a Masters degree in some other discipline as long as they have 18 graduate semester hours in Biology. If the resume shows a Bachelor’s degree in Biology but a Master’s in Physics... you will have to attach a document that verifies that the individual meets the 18 hour rule or if they do not meet the 18 hour rule, attach a document that explains their outstanding professional experience in Biology. If you can do neither, and this person is not going to be the instructor of record, you will have to hire the person as a Lecturer (which requires a bachelor’s degree in the teaching discipline).

If you want to use the titles of Assistant, Associate or Full Professor, the minimum requirement is a PhD or terminal degree in the teaching discipline.
